Anxiety over Keshi

Coach reported to have resigned

Sports Minister: I'm not aware

By Ade Oshin and Tony Adams

There was anxiety last night over the fate of Stephen Keshi's tenure as coach of the Nigerian national football team. There were reports that the coach had resigned, but Keshi's office said he had not. The coach's office said he had not resigned and that he would continue to lead the team until the end of the month. Keshi's office also said that he had not received any offers from other clubs. The coach's office said that he had not received any offers from other clubs.
